TELL THE LIBRARY WHAT YOU THINK, WIN TICKETS TO A SPRING TRAINING GAME

Glendale, Ariz. — The Glendale libraries want to know what you think of them and are offering an opportunity to win tickets to a Cactus League Spring Training game. Library administrators are conducting a survey, which is available at all three of Glendale's libraries and online, to find gain the public's feedback.

The survey asks for satisfaction and comments on such items as the library facilities, staff and the physical resources, such as books, magazines and DVDs. Additionally, the survey asks how satisfied patrons are with the digital resources and digital access. Questions also include how often visitors attend the library and how far they travel to do so.

The staff also wants to hear from residents who do not visit the library to find out why.

Answers from the survey will help direct the future needs and matters to be addressed, improved upon or maintained.

Those that fill out the survey can enter to win a set of four tickets to a Cactus League Spring Training game at Camelback Ranch-Glendale, the spring training home of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Chicago White Sox.

The survey will close Feb. 28, 2013. To take the survey, just visit www.glendaleaz.com/library or visit one of the Glendale libraries. Glendale has three libraries: Glendale Main, 5959 W. Brown St., Foothills Branch, 19055 N. 57th Ave., and Velma Teague Branch, 7010 N. 58th Ave.
